

J.S. Bach
Cantata No. 70
Wachet! betet! betet! wachet

Prima Parte.

(Coro.)

(Tempo ordinario ♩ = 72.)

Pianoforte.

The first system of the piano accompaniment features a treble and bass clef. The treble clef part begins with a series of eighth notes, while the bass clef part provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. A dynamic marking of mf is present at the end of the system.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment with similar rhythmic patterns in both staves.

The third system includes a dynamic marking of p (piano) in the bass clef part.

The fourth system features a dynamic marking of cresc. (crescendo) in the bass clef part.

The fifth system concludes the piano accompaniment with a final cadence in both staves.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 70

Piano accompaniment for the first system. The right hand features a melodic line with grace notes and a 'cresc.' marking. The left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with a 7-measure rest.

Piano accompaniment for the second system, continuing the melodic and rhythmic patterns from the first system.

high, and be as-sured, ye faith - ful!

The first system of the score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major and 4/4 time, with lyrics in German and English. The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand. A trill is marked above the final note of the vocal line.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. The right hand plays a series of eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving bass lines. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking is present at the beginning of the system.

The third system of the piano accompaniment shows a continuation of the eighth-note patterns in the right hand. A forte (f) dynamic marking is used, and a trill is marked above a note in the right hand.

The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment with similar rhythmic patterns. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking is present. A trill is marked above a note in the right hand.

The fifth system of the piano accompaniment features a continuation of the eighth-note patterns. A forte (f) dynamic marking is used. A trill is marked above a note in the right hand.

The sixth and final system of the piano accompaniment on this page concludes with a final cadence. It features a continuation of the eighth-note patterns in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present. A trill is marked above a note in the right hand.
