First system of the musical score, featuring a treble and bass clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The treble staff contains a complex, rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter notes. Dynamic markings p and mf are present in the bass staff.

Second system of the musical score, continuing the complex texture of the first system. The treble staff's rhythmic pattern remains intricate, while the bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment. Dynamic markings p and mf are visible.

Third system of the musical score. The treble staff shows a continuation of the rhythmic complexity, with some notes beamed together. The bass staff accompaniment is consistent. A dynamic marking p is present.

Fourth system of the musical score. The treble staff features a melodic line with a long note value, possibly a half note or longer, with a slur over it. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment. A dynamic marking p is present.

Fifth system of the musical score, which includes vocal lyrics. The treble staff has a vocal line with lyrics: "Komm! komm, komm, ich rei-che dir die". Below it, the German lyrics are written: "Komm! komm, komm, ich rei-che dir die". The English translation is: "Come, come, come, to thee my hands are". The bass staff continues with the accompaniment. A dynamic marking p is present.
