

J.S. Bach
Cantata No. 195
Dem Gerechten muß das Licht

Vor der Trauung

Coro.
(Tempo giusto ♩ = 72)

The musical score is presented in five systems, each consisting of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is G major (one sharp) and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked 'Tempo giusto' with a quarter note equal to 72 beats. The first system starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The music is a chorale with a strong rhythmic pattern, featuring many eighth and sixteenth notes. The score is written for a single instrument, likely a harpsichord or organ.

Coro.

(Allegro moderato ♩ = 120.)

First system of the musical score. It consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a complex texture with sixteenth-note runs and chords, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Second system of the musical score. The right hand continues with intricate sixteenth-note patterns and includes a trill (tr) in the final measure. The left hand maintains its accompaniment. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking is present in the middle of the system.

Fifth system of the musical score. The right hand plays a series of chords and dyads, while the left hand continues with eighth-note accompaniment. The system ends with a final chord.
