Jota de Pablo

Dans l'exquise fraîcheur de l'Aube le Rythme aimé; joyeux qui la nuit montait aux étoiles
s'éloigne lentement.... et reste dans le Rêve!

„Die Morgendämmerung, dort, in den Pyrenäen, mahnt die
unermüdlich tanzenden Pärchen, deren jauchzender Gesang vaterländischer Tanzweisen die ganze Nacht die Lüfte erfüllte, zum Aufbruch... und so verweht Alles wie ein Traum!...“

Allegro Energico.

First system of musical notation. The top staff is a single melodic line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains several measures, including a triplet of eighth notes. The bottom staff is a piano accompaniment in treble and bass clefs, featuring chords and single notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the top staff.

Third system of musical notation, continuing the melody and accompaniment. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the top staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. The top staff begins with the tempo marking "Tempo I." and the performance instruction "pizz. arco" (pizzicato, then arco). It includes a triplet of eighth notes. The bottom staff features a dynamic marking of "mf" (mezzo-forte).

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a series of eighth-note chords, followed by a more complex rhythmic pattern. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It features a series of chords and rests. The bottom staff is a single bass line in bass clef, also with a key signature of one sharp, featuring a series of eighth-note chords.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melodic line from the first system, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The middle staff continues the grand staff accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The bottom staff continues the bass line accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff features a series of eighth-note chords, with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The middle staff continues the grand staff accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The bottom staff continues the bass line accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff features a series of eighth-note chords, with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The middle staff continues the grand staff accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line. The bottom staff continues the bass line accompaniment, ending with a measure marked with a fermata and a dotted line.

First system of musical notation. The top staff (treble clef) begins with a melodic line, followed by a trill marked with a '13' and a slur. The bottom staff (bass clef) features a piano introduction with chords and a melodic line. Dynamics include ff (fortissimo) and mf (mezzo-forte).

Second system of musical notation. The top staff continues the melodic line with various intervals and a final cadence. The bottom staff continues the piano accompaniment with chords and a melodic line.

Third system of musical notation. The top staff features a melodic line with triplets marked with a '3' and a slur. The bottom staff continues the piano accompaniment with chords and a melodic line. Dynamics include p (piano) and pp (pianissimo).

Fourth system of musical notation. The top staff features a melodic line with triplets marked with a '3' and a slur. The bottom staff continues the piano accompaniment with chords and a melodic line.

Poco più lento.

musical score for the second system, measures 9-16. The vocal line continues the melodic phrase. The piano accompaniment remains in the molto sostenuto style.

musical score for the fourth system, measures 25-32. The vocal line continues the melodic phrase. The piano accompaniment remains in the a tempo style.

musical score for the fifth system, measures 33-40. The tempo changes back to Poco più lento. The vocal line features a melodic phrase with a long note at the end. The piano accompaniment is marked pp sostenuto and consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a similar pattern in the left hand.

First system of musical notation. The upper staff features a continuous melodic line with eighth-note patterns, often beamed in groups of four. The lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with a steady eighth-note pulse in the bass and chords in the treble.

Second system of musical notation. The upper staff continues the melodic line. The lower staff includes the instruction rit. (ritardando) above the staff, indicating a gradual slowing down of the tempo.

Third system of musical notation. The upper staff begins with the instruction a tempo and pp (pianissimo). The lower staff also begins with a tempo and pp. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Fourth system of musical notation. The upper staff contains a rapid, continuous sixteenth-note scale. The lower staff features a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth-note patterns and chords.

Fifth system of musical notation. The upper staff begins with the instruction pizz. (pizzicato) and pp. It contains a series of chords and short melodic fragments. The lower staff is mostly empty, with a few chords in the bass line.
